President's Letter

PJ Trask

Hello BTA,

So the summer is in full swing now, with leagues, ladders, and socials underway. It is looking like a busy and fun summer. It's wonderful to see all the participation in the Saturday morning drop-in tennis and the monthly pot-lucks, as well as the success of the Austin Scott a month ago. We appreciate the help you all have given in regards to all of these events. Hopefully this active trend will continue, as we have another pot-luck upcoming on June 17th. So be sure to get active within one or all of these activities, we hope to see you all out there....

POTLUCK SOCIAL

For those of you who missed the BTA Spring Fling Social and Potluck, there are more opportunities to play tennis, win prizes, socialize, and eat great food! The BTA is sponsoring Friday evening pot-luck tennis round robins! On the third Friday of each month beginning Friday, June 17th from 5:30 to sundown at the Centennial Middle School courts, we will play a round robin followed by a pot luck dinner/barbeque. Come meet and have fun playing with your tennis community!

Monthly Tennis Social and Potluck:

WHERE: Centennial Middle School

2205 Norwood Ave. in North Boulder

WHEN: Friday, June 17th from 5:30 p.m. until sundown

BRING: A dish to share and/or something to BBQ

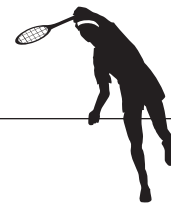

RSVP: barbdausch@yahoo.com

This month's potluck is in honor of Valerie Walls. Valerie was the BTA President in 2002 and was the long time heart and soul of the BTA. She was also instrumental in establishing the Colorado Wheelchair Tennis Association and promoting wheelchair tennis throughout Colorado.

Please sign up ASAP. Include your name, approximate NTRP rating, and dish you would like to bring.

2005 LEAGUES

League Season for the BTA has opened with several new teams and most of the returning ones from last year. It's time, now, to start planning and registering the next four leagues. They are:

USA Senior League

Team Registration Deadline: June 13
League Coordinator: Mara Frazier 303.499.3348

CTA Twilight League
